

CST Hosts Second Annual Executive Forum

TORONTO, June 14, 2016 – CST Trust Company (CST) and its affiliates hosted their second annual Executive Forum meeting last week in Toronto at the Ritz Carlton hotel. Clients, partners and industry experts attended the event, which featured several educational sessions. The keynote speakers included Andrew Grantham, Senior Economist, CIBC Capital Markets and Wendel Clark, former Team Captain of the Toronto Maple Leafs.

“We were very pleased with the turnout at our second annual forum,” commented Margot Jordan, President and Chief Executive Officer of CST. “The event allows us to personally connect with our clients and partners. This interaction and feedback is critical to driving growth and a key component to our company initiatives.”

The Executive Forum is an event for CST’s clients and partners that serves as both an educational and networking platform. The program offers informational sessions on prevalent industry topics and issues, as well as several opportunities for attendees to connect with their industry peers.

“The Executive Forum was great on many levels,” said Dexter John, Executive Vice President of D.F. King. “Attendees had a wonderful time sharing best practices and industry knowledge. The Forum provided a great combination of educational components in a social atmosphere.”
